

Official Instruction Manual for the Elven Tarot of the Eternal Tree

Introduction.

Tarot as a Mirror of Life

Welcome to the world of the Elven Tarot of the Eternal Tree — a deck that uses the classic Rider-Waite-Smith system but is filled with the magic and imagery of the Elven world. Despite its unique design, this deck is ideal for intuitive reading, as all 78 of its cards are divided into two main groups reflecting different aspects of the human experience.

Major Arcana: The Life Path and Karmic Lessons

The Major Arcana (22 cards, from 0 to XXI) symbolize the main stages of the life path, karmic lessons, great archetypes, and significant events. They point to global, inevitable changes, spiritual development, and key forces operating in your life. When Major Arcana cards dominate a spread, it indicates a fateful period.

Minor Arcana: Everyday Situations

The Minor Arcana (56 cards) reflect everyday events, practical situations, emotional states, and relationships that shape our daily lives. They provide detail and context, showing exactly how the great energies of the Major Arcana are realized. The Court Cards (Pages, Knights, Queens, Kings) symbolize specific people or our styles of behaviour.

Section 1: Meanings of Suits and Elements

Each of the four Minor Arcana suits corresponds to a specific element and sphere of life.

Suit	Element	Sphere	Key Aspects

Section 3: Classic Tarot Spreads

These spreads are the foundation for most Tarot practices and allow for a structured answer to various inquiries.

1. The Three Card Spread

Purpose: This is the simplest and most universal spread. It is ideal for a quick analysis of a developing situation or for focusing on a specific problem.

Diagram:

Card Positions:

- Position 1: Past: Factors or events that led to the current situation. The historical roots of the problem.
- Position 2: Present: The essence of the current situation, the dominant energy now, or the Querent's attitude.
- Position 3: Future: The probable outcome if the situation continues on its current trajectory.

2. The Horseshoe Spread

Purpose: This spread provides a comprehensive view of a complex problem, revealing both external and internal influences. It is well suited for questions like "What should I do about...?".

Diagram:

Card Positions:

- Position 1: Past: Causes and influences that led to the current state.
- Position 2: Present: The current situation and the Querent's attitude towards it.
- Position 3: Near Future: Energies that will begin to manifest soon.
- Position 4: Advice or Action: What you can do to influence the situation. Your role.
- Position 5: Influence of Others: How the environment (people, circumstances) affects your situation.
- Position 6: Obstacles or Difficulties: Negative or blocking forces that need to be overcome.
- Position 7: Probable Outcome: The final result if you follow the cards' recommendations.

3. The Celtic Cross Spread

Purpose: The Celtic Cross is the most detailed and well-known spread. It is used for an in-depth analysis of any situation, revealing psychological aspects, external influences, past, future, and ultimate hopes.

Diagram:

Card Positions:

- 1. Current Situation (The Base): The essence of the question or the situation you are currently in.
- 2. Obstacle / Help (The Crossing): The energy acting upon the situation. It can be both an obstacle and a potential resource.
- 3. Subconscious (The Root): The recent past or what influences you from the depths of the subconscious.
- 4. Past (Behind You): That which is passing or has already happened, and you can no longer change it.
- 5. Possible Outcome (Above You): The best outcome you can hope for. Potential.
- 6. Near Future: Events expected within the next few weeks/months.
- 7. The Querent (You): Your current position, attitude, fears, or hopes regarding the question.
- 8. Environment: The influence of other people, family, friends, or the surrounding environment.
- 9. Hopes and Fears: Your inner hopes and/or anxieties, often hidden.
- 10. Final Outcome: The probable conclusion of the situation if everything develops according to the influences mentioned above.

Remember, Tarot is not a rigid sentence but a tool for self-discovery. The card meanings are a guide, but true wisdom always lies within your intuition.

Success on your Tarot journey!
